CHAPTER 1 – INTRODUCTION

You've watched the countless late night infomercials, along with lots of "before and after" photographs that flicker on the screen, each one showing a famous celebrity who used this "magic formula in a bottle" to rid themselves of acne forever, and how you can use the formula yourself to get rid of all your recurring acne problems forever.

What happened next are nothing but even more frustration and sense of hopelessness, as this so-called "magic formula in a bottle" not only failed to help improve your acne condition, but it made your acne condition even worse!
