CHAPTER 1 – INTRODUCTION

Traffic is what I like to call, the "heartbeat" of any website. The reason is this – You can have the most attractive offer (as compared to all your other competitors), with the best Unique Selling Proposition. However, as long as people do not know your website's existence, then there is absolutely no way you can generate any money from your website.

Just like a traditional brick and mortar store, the more people who "come into" or view your online business by visiting your website, the better the odds are that you will be able to generate a sale.

Because of this simple common sense fact, it's no surprise you want to drive as much traffic as you can to your websites.

That being said, you do not want to just focus on driving any type of traffic to your website, but, you want to drive laser targeted traffic instead (where these groups of people are interested in what you have put up in your website).

There are 1,001 ways to drive traffic to a website - You can always opt to do it the traditional way by paying for super duper expensive online banner ads or working diligently to compose a creative email newsletter that goes out every single month to those who have opted in to receive them.

Alternatively, you can utilize some sneaky and creative, yet highly effective methods that will help you to effectively drive laser targeted traffic to your websites.

For the first time ever, I am going to share with you a total of 8 barely legal traffic generation techniques (both online, as well as offline) which I have experienced huge successes in, that will allow you to drive hordes of super laser targeted traffic to your website.

Equipped with the traffic generation strategies that I am going to reveal to you in this blueprint, never will you need to scratch your head wondering how you can drive traffic to your websites anymore.
