The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. It contains a melodic line with a fermata over the first two measures. The lower staff is a bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, containing a harmonic accompaniment with a fermata over the first two measures. A small number '5' is written above the first measure of both staves.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature, containing a melodic line with a fermata over the first two measures. The lower staff is a bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, containing a harmonic accompaniment with a fermata over the first two measures. A small number '9' is written above the first measure of both staves.
