

Carol of the Bagpipers

Translation taken from Baker and Longfellow versions Traditional

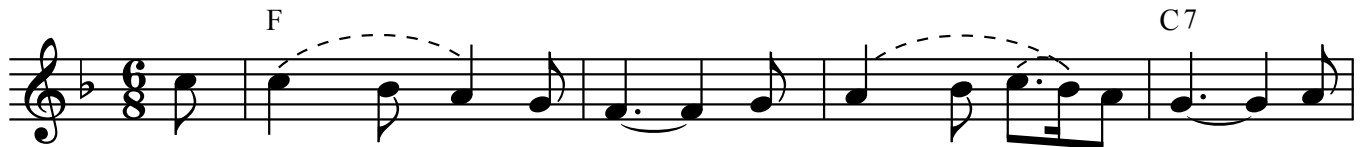

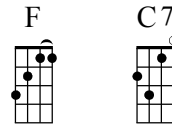

Ukulele

Guitar

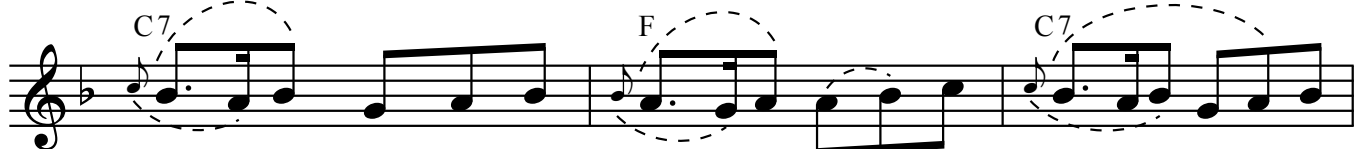

Baritone Uke

When Christ our Lord was born at Beth - le - hem a - far, Al - Then peace was spread through - out the land. The While shep - herds in the fields their flocks were tend - ing, A though 'twas night, there shone as bright as noon a star: Ne - ver so li - on fed be - side the ten - der lamb; And with the shi - ning an - gel came from heav'n desc - end - ing; When he be - bright - ly, ne - ver so white - ly shone the stars as on that kid, to pas - ture led, the spot - ted leap - - - ard held them, straight - way he told them: Hear my voice, be not a - night! The bright - est star went a - way to call the Wise Men fed; In peace, the calf and bear, The wolf and lamb re - posed fraid! Be glad, re - joice now, For lo be - neath your eyes earth is be - from the Or - i - ent.

to - geth - er there.
come a par - a - dise.